Mentoring System to Help at Individual Level:

The institute has well defined and effective mentoring system.

The main objectives of this scheme are:

- To inculcate discipline, punctuality and motivation among the students.
- To provide a reliable and comprehensive support system motivates the students to excel in both academic and non-academic field.
- To enable the parents to know about the performance & regularity of their wards.
- Counseling students for solving their problems and provide confidence to improve their quality of life.
- Guiding students to choose right career path for job, higher studies, Entrepreneurship, etc.

Details of Mentoring System:

Each faculty in the department is the mentor of a group of 20 to 25 students. First year students have mentors from the department of Applied Science and Humanities and second, third, fourth year students have mentors from the Mechanical Engineering Department. The Mechanical Engineering Departmental faculties will continue to be mentors for the same group of students till their graduation.

Responsibilities of Mentor:

1. Mentor keeps close watch for physical, intellectual, emotional & social welfare of the student.
2. Mentor as a counselor has to associate with mentee to explore their potential for bright future & utmost career.
3. As a moral responsibility Mentor assesses & reviews the student from time to time besides academic affairs.
4. Mentor identifies & promotes their mentees to grab an opportunity & create scope for the progress & development of the ward.
5. Keeping in view the career aspect, Mentor makes close watch towards academic
