3.4.1 Outcomes of Extension activities in the neighborhood community in terms of impact and sensitizing the students to social issues for their holistic development during the last five years.

SSGMCE is deeply committed to nurturing social awareness among its students through a combination of academic curriculum and extension activities. The institution hosts a diverse range of initiatives, including blood donation camps, educational awareness programs, and gender equality initiatives, all with the aim of promoting awareness within the local community. To realize these objectives, the college effectively manages several key units, including the National Service Scheme (NSS), Unnat Bharat Abhiyaan (UBA), National Cadet Corps (NCC), and Sankalp Group. These units collaboratively conduct various extension activities within the neighbouring community, sensitizing students to vital social issues.

National Service Scheme (NSS)

The NSS organizes a seven-day camp in an adopted village nearby, during which NSS volunteers partake in diverse initiatives aimed at addressing pertinent social issues. The units orchestrate clean-up events where students join hands with community members to improve the cleanliness of streets and villages. Additionally, health and hygiene workshops are conducted in local schools and community centers, educating students about proper hand washing techniques, personal hygiene practices, and the significance of maintaining a balanced diet. The NSS unit further organized a Covid Vaccination Camp and a Water Conservation Competition for students. Guidance was provided to farmers on various agricultural issues. Essential supplies such as sanitizers, masks, tablets, etc., were distributed to support underprivileged families in society. The NSS unit also conducted a Cybercrime Awareness Program to educate students about cybercrimes.

Unnat Bharat Abhiyaan

SSGMCE Shegaon is actively involved in the Unnat Bharat Abhiyaan, which aims to drive transformative change in rural development by leveraging knowledge institutions to help build an inclusive India. The college, in consultation with the District Collector Buldhana, has adopted a cluster of five villages in the Shegaon Development Block, namely Goulkhed, Tivhan Bk, Takli Dharav, Janori, and Alasna. Projects in these adopted villages encompass rainwater harvesting, wastewater management, digital learning, disaster management workshops, solar street lamp maintenance, organic farming, and homemade sanitizer and mask production. The college also celebrated World Soil Day in Takali Dharav village to raise awareness about the importance of soil health in sustaining agriculture and lives.

Sankalp Group

Sankalp is a social activity group that operates with the intent of making a positive impact on the lives of others, bringing happiness to both its members and the community. This group emphasizes that while money is important, humanity takes precedence in everyone's life. Sankalp contributes significantly to the personal development of students before they enter the real world after completing their engineering education. The group, comprising many students and staff members, conducts various social activities for society, including providing basic computer knowledge to children in slum areas, celebrating Rakshabandhan at the hostel by tying rakhis to workers in the hostel mess, and holding similar celebrations at a disabled school.

In addition to this, the institute actively participates in events such as International Yoga Day and National Unity Day (Rashtriya Ekta Diwas) to promote a sense of unity and overall well-being.

The institute implements a structured mechanism to engage students in a wide range of social activities aimed at fostering citizenship roles, leadership qualities, and social consciousness. Each department actively conducts numerous extension activities within the local community, spanning various locations. These initiatives aim to facilitate the holistic development of students by organizing sports events, cultural gatherings, and both technical and non-technical activities. The following analysis provides insight into the extension activities' impact, illustrating their role in sensitizing students to pressing social issues and contributing to their overall development.

Title of Activity	Covid 19 Vaccination Camp
Organizer	NSS Unit SSGMCE Shegaon
Schedule of Activity	20/12/2022
Objective of Activity	To provide an opportunity for all members associated with the college community, including teaching and non-teaching staff, students, and their family members, to receive Covid-19 vaccinations To create a more comprehensive impact on community health. Inoculating a wider circle contributes not only to the protection of individuals associated with the college but also to the broader community and public health.
Overview of Program	On the 20th of December 2022, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit took a proactive stance in the fight against the ongoing global pandemic by organizing a Covid-19 Vaccination Camp at the SSGMCE, Shegaon Campus. This commendable initiative aimed at ensuring the health and safety of all members associated with the college community, including teaching and non-teaching staff, students, and even their family members.The vaccination camp, held within the premises of the College Dispensary, adhered strictly to all Covid-19 guidelines, underscoring the commitment to public health and safety. This meticulous attention to safety protocols provided a secure environment for all participants, fostering a sense of confidence and well-being. The collective effort yielded a significant outcome as a total of 37 booster doses of the Covid-19 vaccine were administered during the camp. This achievement not only contributes to the individual immunity of those who received the vaccine but also plays a crucial role in building a robust defense against the further spread of the virus within the college community.
Venue	Shegaon
No. of Participants	37
Outcomes of the activity	Student participation in the vaccination camp reflects a strong sense of community responsibility. By taking part in the initiative, students contribute to creating a safer environment for themselves, their peers, faculty, and the broader community, fostering a culture of shared responsibility. By extending the vaccination drive to include family members, the camp has a broader impact on public health. Protecting not only the college community but also their families contributes to creating a safer and healthier local community.

Title of Activity	Tree Plantation (NSS Camp)
Organizer	NSS Unit SSGMCE Shegaon
Schedule of Activity	15/03/2023
Objective of Activity	To promote biodiversity by selecting a diverse range of tree species suitable for the local climate, fostering a more robust and varied ecosystem. To raise awareness about the importance of tree planting and environmental conservation among NSS volunteers, students, and the broader community.
Overview of Program	On the 15th of March 2023, the NSS Unit of Shri Sant Gajanan Maharaj College of Engineering (SSGMCE) undertook a commendable Tree Plantation Drive, contributing to environmental conservation and community well-being. A total of 50 trees were planted during this initiative, symbolizing the NSS unit's commitment to sustainable practices and ecological balance. The event, held with enthusiasm and dedication, saw active participation from NSS volunteers who diligently planted a variety of saplings. The tree species selected were well-suited to the local climate, ensuring their long-term viability and positive impact on the ecosystem. The Tree Plantation Drive aligns with the NSS unit's broader mission of fostering social responsibility and contributing to the overall betterment of society. This green initiative not only enhances the aesthetic appeal of the college campus but also promotes the importance of environmental consciousness among students and the wider community. The NSS Unit at SSGMCE continues to play a pivotal role in shaping environmentally aware and socially responsible individuals through such impactful initiatives
No. of Participants	100
Outcomes of the activity	Students gain a heightened awareness of environmental issues, particularly the role of trees in ecological balance and the importance of sustainable practices. Involvement in planting 50 trees provides students with practical experience in environmental conservation, allowing them to actively contribute to a greener campus. The event promotes engagement with the local community, as the planted trees contribute to the overall greenery and aesthetics of the surrounding areas.

Title of Activity	Road Safety Campaign (NSS Camp)
Organizer	NSS Unit SSGMCE Shegaon
Schedule of Activity	15/03/2023
Objective of Activity	To increase awareness among the residents of Chincholi about the importance of road safety, emphasizing key practices to prevent accidents and ensure safer road usage. To educate both pedestrians and drivers on the importance of pedestrian safety, including the use of designated crossings and being vigilant on the road.
Overview of Program	On the 15th of March 2022, the NSS students of Shri Sant Gajanan Maharaj College of Engineering (SSGMCE) undertook a Road Safety Campaign in the adopted village of Chincholi. The primary objective of this initiative was to raise awareness about road safety measures and promote responsible behavior among the residents of the village. The campaign encompassed a series of activities, including informative sessions, distribution of pamphlets, and interactive discussions on the importance of adhering to traffic rules. NSS volunteers, equipped with informational material, actively engaged with the local community, emphasizing key aspects of road safety such as the proper use of pedestrian crossings, the importance of wearing helmets and seatbelts, and the dangers of distracted driving. The campaign also addressed the significance of maintaining road infrastructure and adhering to speed limits. The event saw significant participation from the villagers, with the NSS students fostering a positive and collaborative atmosphere. Additionally, practical demonstrations on the correct use of safety gear and the significance of following traffic signals were conducted, enhancing the effectiveness of the awareness drive.
Venue	Shegaon
No. of Participants	100
Outcomes of the activity	Students develop effective community engagement skills by actively interacting with the residents of Chincholi, fostering communication and understanding. Actively participating in the campaign offers students practical, hands-on experience in executing a community service initiative, enhancing their ability to apply theoretical knowledge in eal-world scenarios

Title of Activity	Health Acupressure Camp(NSS Camp)
Organizer	NSS Unit SSGMCE Shegaon
Schedule of Activity	16/03/2023
Objective of Activity	To educate the villagers about the principles and benefits of acupressure as an alternative healing method To provide personalized acupressure sessions to address specific health concerns of the villagers, such as pain, stress, and minor ailments.
Overview of Program	The NSS unit of SSGMCE recently orchestrated a Health Acupressure Camp in the adopted village of Chincholi, fostering a holistic approach to well-being. The event commenced with an enlightening session led by Dr. Manish Shirsat and Dr. Suraj Halode, who shared their expertise on acupressure with the attending students. This set the stage for an impactful initiative aimed at addressing various health concerns prevalent in the village.. Under the guidance of the medical professionals and supported by NSS volunteers, the camp provided personalized acupressure sessions to more than 150 individuals. Villagers suffering from common ailments such as pain and stress found relief through this alternative healing method. Simultaneously, the camp facilitated a comprehensive health examination, enabling the identification of specific health issues among the villagers. This dual approach of acupressure treatment and health check-ups ensured a well-rounded impact on the community's overall health.
Venue	Shegaon
No. of Participants	100
Outcomes of the activity	Students are exposed to the real-world health challenges faced by rural communities, broadening their perspective on healthcare disparities and the importance of community engagement. Collaborating with medical professionals, fellow students, and NSS volunteers fosters teamwork and collaboration, essential skills for future professionals in any field.

STEM Workshop 2022

Event Title: STEM workshop 2022

Date: 19th August and 20 August 2022

Location: Shri Sant Gajanan Maharaj College of Engineering, Shegaon.

Organizing Institute: Students Activities Committee, IEEE Bombay Section

Workshop Facilitators: IEEE team, SSGMCE.

Number of Participants: 39 Groups (Each group with 3-4 members)

Workshop objectives:

- To introduce elementary school teachers to STEM pedagogy and curriculum.
- To provide high school students with hands-on experience with engineering design challenges.
- To help college students develop their STEM research skills.
- To encourage girls and women to pursue STEM careers.
- To provide STEM education to students in underserved communities.

Event Highlights: IEEE students Branch and WIE Affinity group organized a STEM workshop on Basics of Electronics for School students on 19 th and 20 th August 2022. 50 Students from Shri Sant Gajanan Maharaj English School and G. B. Murarka High School par cipated and learn the basics of electronics. Basic electronics components kit distributed to the students.

also assisted as an Evaluator.

Outcomes:

- Increased STEM knowledge and skills.
- Improved STEM attitudes and beliefs.
- Increased interest in STEM careers.
- Enhanced problem-solving and critical thinking skills.
- Improved teamwork and collaboration skills.

- Increased motivation and self-confidence.
- Increased awareness of STEM equity and inclusion issues.

Feedback Analysis:The workshop was well-organized and informative. The instructors were knowledgeable and engaging, and the materials were clear and concise.

The hands-on activities were a great way to learn about STEM concepts. They were challenging but rewarding, and they helped me to understand the material in a deeper way.

I appreciated the diversity of the workshop participants. It was great to learn from people from different backgrounds and with different perspectives.

I would recommend this workshop to anyone interested in learning more about STEM. It was a valuable experience that I will take with me into the future.

Impact Analysis: Pre- and post-tests: This method involves giving participants a test before and after the workshop to measure their knowledge and skills.

Surveys: This method involves asking participants to complete a survey about their experiences in the workshop, including their thoughts on the content, activities, and instructors.

Observations: This method involves observing participants during the workshop to get a sense of their engagement and learning.

Case studies: This method involves interviewing participants in depth about their experiences in the workshop and how it has impacted them.

Title of Activity	Zero Waste Management and Cleanliness (NSS Camp)
Organizer	NSS Unit SSGMCE Shegaon
Schedule of Activity	09/03/2022
Objective of Activity	Encourage and educate the residents of Kherda Village about sustainable living practices, with a focus on waste reduction, proper waste disposal, and environmental conservation. Empower the villagers by imparting knowledge and skills related to waste segregation, composting, and recycling.
Overview of Program	In a commendable effort to contribute to community welfare, the NSS unit of Shri Sant Gajanan Maharaj College of Engineering (SSGMCE) initiated a Zero Waste Management and Cleanliness Drive in the adopted village of Kherda. The objective of this initiative was to promote sustainable living practices, enhance cleanliness, and instill a sense of environmental responsibility among the villagers.The NSS students actively engaged with the community, conducting awareness sessions on the importance of waste management and the adverse effects of improper disposal. They organized workshops to educate villagers about segregating waste at the source, emphasizing the principles of reduce, reuse, and recycle.To kickstart the cleanliness campaign, the NSS unit organized cleanliness drives within the village, involving both students and villagers. The focus was not only on waste collection but also on creating a sense of ownership and pride in maintaining a clean and hygienic environment.In addition to the cleanliness drives, the students implemented sustainable waste management practices such as composting and recycling. They set up compost pits for organic waste and collaborated with local authorities for the proper disposal of non-biodegradable waste, thereby contributing to a reduction in environmental pollution.The initiative also included tree plantation drives to enhance green cover and promote ecological balance. The NSS students worked collaboratively with the villagers, fostering a sense of community ownership for the sustainable development of Kherda.
Venue	Shegaon
No. of Participants	100 Students
Outcomes of the activity	The event facilitated meaningful engagement with the local community, allowing students to collaborate with villagers, local authorities, and other stakeholders, fostering a sense of teamwork and community involvement. Students gained a deeper understanding of environmental issues, especially related to waste management, pollution, and the importance of sustainable practices.

Organizer	NSS Unit SSGMCE Shegaon
Schedule of Activity	09/03/2022
Objective of Activity	Introduce computer literacy programs to ensure that students in Kherda village have access to digital resources and opportunities. Provide hands-on training to students
Overview of Program	In a concerted effort to foster computer literacy, the NSS students of SSGMCE initiated a transformative program at the Kherda village school. The primary objective was to bridge the digital divide by introducing computer literacy programs, ensuring that students in rural areas have access to essential technological skills. The program aimed to empower students through hands-on training in basic computer operations, software usage, and internet navigation. This initiative not only sought to enhance the educational experience by integrating technology into the learning process but also aimed to make educational content more accessible and interactive for students. Beyond the direct impact on students, the program also included training sessions for teachers, empowering them to proficiently incorporate technology as a teaching aid. Through this holistic approach, the NSS students of SSGMCE aspired to create a sustainable model for digital inclusion in rural education, addressing the disparities that often exist in accessing technology in rural communities. The outcomes of this initiative were expected to extend beyond the immediate enhancement of computer literacy, contributing to the overall development and empowerment of the Kherda village school community.
Venue	Kherda
No. of Participants	100 Students
Outcomes of the activity	By providing hands-on training, the initiative empowered students with knowledge, enabling them to leverage technology for educational and personal development. The program's broader impact extended to the community, fostering a culture of digital awareness and laying the foundation for future initiatives to enhance the overall development of the Kherda village school.

Unnat Bharat Abhiyaan

"Unnat Bharat Abhiyan" is a flagship program of the Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD), Government of India, aimed at uplifting citizens in villages and rural areas. Presently, 70% of the population in India resides in rural areas, engaging in an agrarian economy where agriculture and allied sectors employ 51% of the total workforce but contribute only 17% to the country's GDP. There exist significant developmental disparities between rural and urban sectors, including inequities in health, education, incomes, basic amenities, and employment opportunities. These disparities lead to discontent and large-scale migration to urban areas.

To bridge the gap between urban and rural development and uplift rural India, the Unnat Bharat Abhiyan of Shri Sant Gajanan Maharaj College of Engineering (SSGMCE) has collaborated with higher educational institutions such as Sant Gadge Baba Amravati University (SGBAU) to bring mainstream industrial knowledge to the rural populace. Unnat Bharat Abhiyan (UBA) is a much-needed and highly challenging initiative in this direction.

Development of App for S.T. (Buldhana District)

Three third-year engineering students at SSGMCE, Shegaon, have successfully developed an Android mobile application named "fromto" for the Buldhana District State Transport. The students involved in the app's development are Mandeepsingh Bagga (EXTC), Akshaykumar Bhopale (CSE), and Chetan Marode (CSE). This application serves as a valuable tool for passengers opting for S.T. Bus travel, providing them with comprehensive information on schedules, fares, routes, and travel times.

Currently, the app is operational for buses in all depots within Buldhana district. In the coming days, the students plan to collaborate with the State Transport Corporation to expand the app's coverage to the entire state of Maharashtra.

The application is accessible in English, Marathi, Hindi, and Hinglish, making it inclusive for a diverse user base. Notably, the design and interface of the app are user-friendly and straightforward. As of now, the app has garnered over a thousand downloads, showcasing its popularity and utility among users. The students' initiative represents a commendable effort in leveraging technology to enhance public transportation accessibility and convenience.

Rishi Panchami Celebration:

Commemorating the Samadhi Diwas of Shri Sant Gajanan Maharaj at SSGMCE, Shegaon

Objective:

The objective of the Rishi Panchami Celebration at SSGMCE, Shegaon, on September 3, 2019, was to pay homage and celebrate the Samadhi Diwas of Shri Sant Gajanan Maharaj. The event aimed to bring the college community together in a spiritual observance, reflecting on the teachings and legacy of Shri Gajanan Maharaj. Through a variety of activities, the celebration sought to foster a sense of community, reverence, and appreciation for the spiritual leader's impact on the institution.

Overview:

Rishi Panchami, observed as the Samadhi Diwas of Shri Sant Gajanan Maharaj, was commemorated with deep reverence at SSGMCE, Shegaon, on September 3, 2019. The occasion held significant importance as it provided an opportunity for the college community to reflect upon and celebrate the teachings of Shri Gajanan Maharaj. Beyond the religious aspect, the celebration was a collective expression of gratitude for the profound influence of Shri Gajanan Maharaj on the lives of those associated with the institution.

The day unfolded with a series of activities designed to honor and remember the spiritual leader. Shri Gajanan Maharaj Granth Parayan enabled participants to immerse themselves in the wisdom encapsulated in his writings. The distribution of Mahaprasad symbolized communal sharing and bonding. Aarati ceremonies and the Dindi procession added a festive and devotional touch, fostering unity and reverence among the participants. Students actively participated in a procession, passionately raising awareness about crucial social issues, including the imperative to save the girl child and advocating for educational campaigns. Their enthusiastic involvement showcased a commitment to fostering positive change and addressing pressing concerns in our society.

The Rishi Panchami Celebration at SSGMCE on September 3, 2019, was not just a religious observance; it was a holistic experience aimed at strengthening the connection between the college community and the teachings of Shri Sant Gajanan Maharaj. Through these activities, the celebration successfully created an atmosphere of spirituality, gratitude, and communal harmony, leaving a lasting impact on the participants.
