Continuing with the traditions of the Department of Business Administration and Research, this year too there were historic milestones achieved in the present academic year 2016-17. The first is grading by higher education review magazine as Management College of the year 2016. The magazine published a three page article incorporating an exclusive interview of principal of our institute Dr. S. B. Somani in its issue of November 2016. The other milestone was the real time consultancy achieved by the faculty members of the department for the first time in its history generating revenue of Rs. 170700. The organizations provided consultancies are S.E.B.I. (Securities Exchange Board of India);

Mumbai, Yash Enterprises; Khamgaon, Reliance Jio; Shegaon, M.M. Industries; Akola, Saraswati College; Shegaon, TNS India Private Limited; Pune, Brain Change through Internshala, G.K. Informatics, Bondre Study Pattern; Chikhli and a negotiation consultancy for a nursery.

This year also, the department was awarded with Dewang Mehta Business School Affaire National Education Leadership Award 2016 for the second year in a row. AA+ category ranking by Career 360 magazine added feather in the cap of department. Department stood at 136th rank in a survey of best B Schools in India conducted in December 2016 by Business Today magazine. Despite the ups and downs in admission scenario, the admissions were quite good. The students and faculty members participated in Open Days at Kalash Seeds Pvt. Ltd., Jalna. A good number of students were placed in organizations like Whirlpool, Parle Agro, HDFC, Axis Bank, Karvey and Air Indigo. One of the alumni Dr. Devesh Sharma has been appointed in World Bank at Geneva which brings our department on the international map. World Bank is the most prestigious international organization. Dr. Devesh Sharma joined the World Bank in December 2016.
